As He was speaking the teachers of religious law and the Pharisees brought a woman that they had caught in the act of adultery and they put her in front of the crowd.

“Teacher,” they said to Jesus
“This woman was caught in the very act of adultery. The law of Moses says to stone her.
What do You say?”

They were trying to trap Him into saying something they could use against Him.

Jesus stooped down and wrote in the dust with His finger.

They kept demanding an answer so He stood up again and said, “All right, stone her. But let those who have never sinned throw the first stone.”

He stooped down again and wrote in the dust.

When the accusers heard this,
they slipped away one by one beginning with the oldest until only Jesus was left in the middle of the crowd with the woman.”

Jesus stood up again and said to her, “Woman, where are your accusers? Didn’t even one of them condemn you?”

She says, “No, Lord. No one is left to accuse me.” And Jesus said, “Neither do I. Go and sin no more.”

John 8:3-11

Guilty and exposed

Woman

Guilty with no accountability

The guy who got away

Holier than thou

The religious leaders

The judgmental pile on

The crowd

I need relationships even though they are messy.

Nobody is normal.

Admit my own faults

Who are the significant people in my life?

Dear children, let us stop just saying we love each other;
let us really show it by our actions.

1 John 3:18

Master the small acts

1. When someone encourages me.

2. When someone calls just to see how I'm doing.

3. When someone listens to me.

4. When someone does anything that required them to think of me.

5. When someone says,
“I love you.”

20. When someone
pays for a meal.

19. When someone
gives me flowers.

18. When someone buys me Starbucks.

I can love like I'm forgiven.

You must make allowance for each other's faults and forgive the person who offends you. Remember, the Lord forgave you so you must forgive others.
