They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.

Everyone was filled with awe
at the many wonders and signs performed by the apostles.

All the believers were together
and had everything in common.

They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need. Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts.

They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people.

And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

Acts 2:42-47

They devoted themselves

They devoted themselves
to moving from anonymity
to being known.

They ate together.

*They broke bread in their homes

sincere hearts.*

They prayed together.

They had a commitment
to be present
with one another.
